- (2) Gamma-strength function (Wednesday)
- (3) Applications (nuclear astrophysics, fission, medical applications...)

Excursion and conference dinner

Please note:

There are almost 90 people registered for the workshop and there are limitations for the number of people for the excursion and the dinner. Therefore, if you are planning to bring an accompanying person, please let us know as soon as possible (a.c.larsen@fys.uio.no) so we can check if there is available space (first come, first served).

The excursion will take place on Thursday May 30 after lunch. We will have a guided tour at the Akershus Castle inside the Akershus Fortress:
